"ROMEMU"

~ ~ ~ ~

*Sand on the floor
Dusts my shoes and
My heart pounds in awe -
I'm embraced by Matriarchal pillars.*

*Mahogany doors
Are swung open
Disclosing the scrolls.
Around me I sense
The presence of those
Who were there
Long before me.*

*My hand can't hold still
As I reach out to touch -
The procession moves on
My voice cracks
My eyes are quite misty as
I strain to join in:
"ROMEMU"*

The House of God...

Our God and God of all generations
We gather here with grateful hearts
To dedicate ourselves, again, to You

*We thank You for the tasks we have shared here
And for the hours of sacred communion with You*

For the joys we found in celebration and worship.
For the blessings of strength, comfort, and peace;

*For the will to strive and the wisdom to accomplish;
For hope when despondent, and faith when in doubt;*

For comrades who labored, devoted loyal,
Who shared our vision, our goals, our dreams

*For all these we thank You and praise You, O God
Your House is our refuge, in sorrow and in joy*

Our bond with the past, our hope for the future,
Our ancestors' bequest, our children's heritage.

*We reverently pause to recall those departed,
Who loyally served with heart and with hand*

They live in this Sanctuary they helped to establish,
They live in our thoughts, in our prayers, in our deeds.

*O may we sustain and preserve what they built,
And bring to fruition the seeds they have sown.*

Be with us, we pray, in the years still before us,
To show us the way and to guide us O Lord.

*May this, Your House, be our fortress of strength,
A source of courage for the challenges of life.*

Where we can affirm the faith which we cherish,
The beliefs we hold sacred, the hopes we hold dear.

*Find favor, O Lord with our devotions today;
And keep us united in service to You.*
