

7/5/89.

The Honorable Order of Kentucky Colonels request your presence at two 1989 Derby Events
honoring Governor Wallace G. Wilkinson
and
Mrs. Wilkinson
at the 56th renewal of
The Colonels' Annual Banquet
Friday evening, May fifth
The Galt House
and
The Colonels' Barbecue
Sunday afternoon, May seventh nineteen hundred and eighty-nine Bardstown, Kentucky

R. S. V. P.

Use enclosed reservation card.

Formal dress suggested for the Banquet.

TWO GREAT EVENTS

THE COLONELS BANQUET

Kentucky Derby Eve is a gala occasion in Louisville for all Kentucky Colonels and their guests, celebrating their common heritage as members of the most prestigious and unique organization in the world.

Cocktail Reception — Say "howdy" to old friends and welcome new Colonels.

Dinner — Galt House's outstanding cuisine

Entertainment — Funny and famous — The Smothers Brothers — Tom & Dick

Dancing — To the Big Band Sound of the Bo Thorpe Orchestra

THE COLONELS BARBECUE

Sunday festivities — 12:00 Noon, May 7, 1989

Barbecue at Wickland in Bardstown, Ky. —

Mint Juleps, Kentucky Burgoo, Down Home Music, Barbecue and featuring gracious hostesses — Kentucky Southern Belles.

Don't delay. To avoid disappointment, please return your reservation as soon as possible. It's an opportunity to join your fellow Colonels in a warm and happy association.

WELCOME COLONEL TOM AND COLONEL DICK SMOTHERS

Tom and Dick Smothers, the outstanding comedy-musical team over the past 30 years will be our headline entertainers. It isn't easy to characterize Tom and Dick. Their present concert schedule has them appearing with artists as impressive and diverse as Kenny Rogers, the Boston Pops and the Tucson Symphony. Proving their topical satire can survive any political, social or network regime, the Smothers Brothers are as funny now as they ever were!

THE BO THORPE BIG BAND SOUND

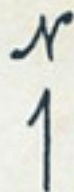

Every now and then something truly unique and great comes along in the world of music. "The Bo Thorpe Orchestra puts it all together — good listening, good dancing, and good looking," according to a recent review by the New Yorker. Bo and his merry band of musicians have a repertoire that will satisfy the dancing feet of all Colonels.

Come and enjoy our Barbecue Festivities at the Wickland Estate in Bardstovwn on May 7th

The Route to Bardstovwn from Downtown Louisville.

Historic Wickland - a fine example of Kentucky Colonial Architecture

DON'T FORGET TO ORDER TICKETS TO THE BARBECUE WHEN YOU RESERVE FOR THE BANQUET. THESE MUST BE BOUGHT IN ADVANCE AS THERE WILL BE NO TICKETS SOLD AT THE GATE. PLEASE: If you are receiving duplicate mail from us, please so advise, and be sure to notify us if you move!